As law firm turns 40, more awards follow

Denver's Kissinger & Fellman adds three big honors to its collection

DENVER (March 14, 2016) – Just in time to help celebrate the law firm's 40 years in business, Kissinger & Fellman P.C. learned recently that it has received major recognition for two of its partners.

Rick Kissinger was named as one of the Woodward/White "Best Lawyers" in the organization's list of 2016 Colorado commercial litigants; and Ken Fellman was named in the same survey as a "Lawyer of the Year" in the area of municipal law.

Additionally, Fellman was recently recognized in the 2016 Super Lawyers Magazine. It was the seventh straight year that Fellman has received that distinguished title from Super Lawyers; and it marks the 12th time that Super Lawyers has recognized a member of the Kissinger & Fellman law firm.

"It is gratifying to see that 40 years of legal service by Kissinger & Fellman has led to this kind of recognition from our peers and others connected to the legal community," said Kissinger. "We look forward to continuing to provide the highest quality of legal services to our clients over the next 40 years."

Some of the other awards garnered by attorneys at Kissinger & Fellman over the years include "Barrister's Best," "Top Denver Lawyer," "Rising Star," and "Colorado Motor Carriers Association Distinguished Service Award."

Kissinger & Fellman will celebrate these latest awards and mark the occasion of the firm's 40-year anniversary with an open house at its Cherry Creek offices this summer. Please watch the K&F website for an announcement of details in the coming months.

About Kissinger & Fellman P.C.

Established in 1976, the Denver-based law firm of Kissinger & Fellman offers access to legal experts who are nationally recognized in areas that include telecommunications, social networking, transportation and employment, plus commercial litigation, business planning, government, construction and real estate, and criminal defense. The firm's emphasis on a practical business approach to legal problems has enabled it to attract a growing group of clients, serving as their general counsel or working on specialized legal projects. Partner Ken Fellman has been named Colorado Super Lawyer eight times since 2007; and partner Rick Kissinger won the Colorado Motor Carriers Association Distinguished Service Award in 2011.
